

Reaching the Top with expense management

For the travel and entertainment (T&E) expense management function, executives will further their quest to drive true strategic value out of what once was a back-office series of processes. Into the frontier of expense management.

Research has found that by integrating expense management and traditional ERP systems, organisations have experienced a wide variety of cost, compliance, and, most importantly, visibility benefits.

Aberdeen Group
A Harte-Hanks Company

60%
lower expense-processing costs than all other organisations

LAGGARDS

BEST-IN-CLASS

26%

Real time visibility into T&E spend against budget

Visibility

64%

Real time visibility into T&E spend against budget

26%

Ability to analyse T&E spend to identify savings opportunities

Ease of management

55%

Ability to analyse T&E spend to identify savings opportunities

34%

Visibility into aggregate T&E spend across the enterprise

Percentage of expenses under management

50%

Visibility into aggregate T&E spend across the enterprise

34%

Higher rate of compliance to corporate policy

Compliance

80%

Higher rate of compliance to corporate policy

36%

Ability to analyse T&E spend to identify saving opportunities

Processes costs

55%

Ability to analyse T&E spend to identify saving opportunities

21%

Real-time reviews of pre-trip travel against corporate budgets

Speed of reimbursement

61%

Real-time reviews of pre-trip travel against corporate budgets